THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON

THE many admirers of the Lexington Democrat will learn with regret that Mr. W. P. Walton has sold that paper to the Lexington Herald and that it will be consolidated with its former competitor. They will be glad to know, however, that Mr. Walton made a snug sum by the deal. Mr. Walton's ownership of the Democrat has been a rather remarkable one. The paper sunk fully $20,000 as a stock company, but he made it a paying investment from the very start and fully convinced the people of the Blue Grass Capital that a third paper could be made to pay in Lexington. His retirement from the journalistic field, which he has so long honored, will be greatly regretted by the press and public of Kentucky. Mr. Walton will not engage in other business for the present.

THERE are indications that the campaign for the amendment to the State constitution abolishing the secret ballot and restoring the old viva voce system of voting at elections will begin early and be maintained until a substantial majority has been assured for the measure. It ought to pass and become a law, for the secret ballot has been productive of far greater frauds, greater corruption, greater evils and eyes injurious than any other system of voting known to mankind.

EX-GOV. SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER and Basil W. Duke, ex-Confederate soldiers and until a few years ago high in democratic councils, are members of a committee organized in some form with which to defend Caleb Powers. What a pity it is that these once good and much beloved citizens hadn't joined the silent majority before they slipped over to the republican ranks and, worse still, joined the detestable band of assassins and traitors.

JUDGE BURNAM, of the Court of Appeals stepped down and out Saturday to make room for Judge James E. Cantrell. Judge Burnam made a good judge and had the sense to know when to quit the game without being made to do so. He had too much political wisdom to try conclusions with the Scott county jurist.

THAT Mr. Samuel W. Menefee is a born newspaper man is proven in the splendid Christmas edition of the Advocate he issued Friday last. It contained 21 pages of good local matter, short news stories and well set advertisements galore. It was a "bummer" indeed.

IF Mrs. Chadwick could only have been made postmaster general she could have turned the deficit into a very handsome profit. What a pity that Roosevelt did not think of it in time.

EDITOR LANDRUM has made the Central Record a semi-weekly for this week. Good! The oftener it comes, the better it is for that paper's many readers and admirers.

THE Adair News appeared last week to six column quarto form and as full of news as an egg is of meat. We congratulate Brer Harris on the change.

BRER ALBRIGHT, of the Mt. Vernon Signal, outdid all competitors in his eight-page Christmas edition of Friday. It was a most creditable paper.

LOUISVILLE is rapidly growing smaller. There were 89 deaths against 59 births there last week. Something should be done.

POLITICAL.

Homer B. Bryson has been appointed postmaster at Carlisle.

An anti-treating bill will be introduced in the Indiana Legislature this winter.

A Pennsylvanian woman is suing her husband for divorce because he is a democrat.

The Colorado supreme court threw out enough votes in Denver to insure the control of the Legislature by the republicans.

The State Election Commission is sued a certificate to Judge J. B. Bennett, of Greenup, as a member of Congress from the Ninth district.

The following Adair county postmasters have been appointed: Absher, R. A. Cooley; Fairplay, Wm. H. Hamon; Joppa, Sam M. Coffey; Pickett, Geo. T. Kemp.

Secretary Taft says he will detail Gen. Nelson A. Miles as a member of the governor's staff of Massachusetts when requested by Gov.-elect Douglas to do so.

The republican leaders in Congress have, it is believed, determined to cut down all the appropriations at least 10 per cent below the estimates of the heads of departments.

Persons who have made inquiry concerning the Hunter-Edwards-White contest from the fifth district, are inclined to the opinion that Dr. Hunter will be allowed to retain his seat in the 58th Congress. Dr. Hunter's previous service in Congress has given him a wide acquaintance here, and as between two republicans, the majority members are said to prefer Hunter.—Washington Dispatch.

Kentucky politicians say it is reasonably certain that District Attorney Hill, of Louisville, will lose out, and his place go either to W. C. Owens or Augustus E. Wilson.

A delegation of Bourbon county democrats called on Gov. Beckham and protested against the appointment of Emmett Dickson, of Paris, to fill out the unexpired term of Judge Cantrill. Owing to the factional fight in Bourbon the appointment may go to Judge Robert L. Stout, of Woodford county.

The republican primary in Laurel county resulted as follows: Representative, James G. Yader; sheriff, G. W. Swanner; county judge, P. R. Pennington; jailer, G. P. Johnson; assessor, W. M. Brewer; county clerk, J. J. Davis; school superintendent, J. K. Lawler; county attorney, H. J. Johnson.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Joe Sheppard died suddenly at Somerset.

W. H. Hughes, aged 78, is dead near Perryville.

Wm. Q. Covington, aged 84, is dead in Madison.

Mrs. Lucy Murphy, aged 73, is dead near Liberty.

J. A. Daviport dropped dead of heart trouble in Mercer.

Charles Adams, a business man of Harrodsburg, is dead.

Sam McClurg's big boarding house at Corbin was gutted by fire.

William Stotts has been appointed postmaster at Giles, Garrard county.

R. L. Jennings, of Paint Lick, sold his stock of goods to Cecil Broadbush.

Fred Nickolaus was crushed to death by falling slate in the mines at Pittsburg.

Dr. F. M. Walker, of Paint Lick, will remove to Louisville to practice his profession.

Burton Spires, aged 13, and Miss Lena Butchison, 15 will be married at the court-house to-day by Judge Bailey.

Pat Carney was given eight years by a Knox county jury for complicity in the murder of John and Clark Mills.

Charles Flickering was struck by a motor car at Fork Ridge mines near Middlesboro and died from his injuries. J. T. Asher & Son will build a narrow gauge railroad from Wasfoto, Bell county, on the L. & N., to near Harlan Court-house.

Horace Davis, who was arrested at Somerset, charged with being implicated in the murder of City Marshal Claude Wilson, of Rockwood, has been positively identified.

Mrs. Robert L. French was badly burned about the body at Richmond. While standing in front of an open grate her clothing caught fire, and before she noticed it the flames had almost enveloped her.

Dr. F. Chase tendered his resignation as Prof. of English in Centre College, to take effect Feb. 1. In order that he may accept a call to the Root Professorship of English in Beloit College, at Beloit, Wis.

After a week's trial at Mt. Vernon of Allen Mounce's administrator against the L. & N. for Mounce's death in the Livingston yards as a switchman some three years ago, the jury gave plaintiff a verdict of $7,000.

Editor Landrum, of the Lancaster Record, was presented by the local lodge of Masons with a handsome silver Past Master's badge as a token of appreciation of his services as Master of the lodge for seven years.

The Advocate says that the Q. & C. will in the course of the next few days begin the work of doubling their tracks from Cincinnati to Somerset. The long trestle work this side of Ludlow, which overlooks the lagoon, will be the first part of the system to be double-tracked.

The Danville Fair Association will give a trotting meeting the coming year, the old organization having sold out its plant to a new association composed of leading horsemen of Boyle county. The track of the plant is only a half mile, but has always had the reputation of being one of the fastest short courses in the country. It was there the sensational Nancy Hanks scored a world's three year-old record for a half mile track and made her first bid as a star in the trotting world, from which she retired as the Lou Dillon of her day.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Omer, a well known divine of Asheville, N. C., has been called to the pastorate of the Christian church here.

Rev. L. R. Anis, secretary of the Tennessee conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, is dead at Nashville.

Elder Joseph Ballou made the startling statement in his splendid sermon at the Christian church Sunday morning that in his 30 years' knowledge of that church it had furnished only one preacher—Rev. Joseph Severance.

W. L. Buchanan, formerly editor of the Bedford Banner, and a democratic politician of Trimble county, has been called as pastor of the Christian church of this place. He has accepted the call and will take charge of the church on Jan. 1, says a Middlesboro dispatch.

There has been a remarkable spread of religious revivals in England, Scotland and Wales as a result of the meeting held by Reuben A. Torrey and Charles M. Alexander, of Chicago, at Llanvabon, beginning Sept. 4. In some of the mining districts of Wales there is great religious excitement.

Here and There.

The motion for bail for John R. T. Barbour, charged with the murder of Francis J. Hagan, was overruled by Judge Jones in the Bullitt circuit court.

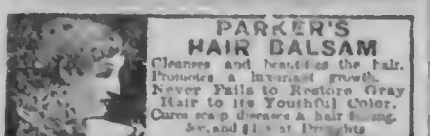

Practically all the railroads in Kentucky have accepted the rules laid down by the State Board of Health of Kentucky providing for the sanitation of their cars.

A fight with knives occurred between four men at Hadley, Warren county, in which a magistrate's court was broken up and the four men were wounded, two of whom may die.

Sheriff Ed Callahan and Judges Jas. Hargle, defendants in the damage suit of Mrs. Abrelia Marcum for $100,000, were placed on the stand by the plaintiff Monday. Callahan said he knew nothing of any $1,500 paid to Felix Feltner by Hargle. Judge Hargle stated that he loaned Feltner $1,500 and took his due bill.

Revolution Imminent.

A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach upsets. Electric Bitters will quickly dismember the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefited particularly, and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters is only 50c and that is returned if it doesn't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by Penny, druggist.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - Dec. 20, 1901

NOTHING is much more appreciated than a box of fine Box Paper for Christmas. We have a very choice assortment of box paper for the Christmas trade and we think that a line equal to ours, for 25 and 50 cents, cannot be duplicated in these parts. Penny's Drug Store, Stanford.

PERSONALS.

MRS. MONTE FOX, of Danville, is very ill.

MISS NELL HILLON, of Lancaster, was with Miss Hallie Nevins.

MRS. BETTIE W. GOOCH and her family invite you to be present at the entertainment and Christmas tree to be given at Briggs' school-house Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock Dec. 23d.

EXCEPTIONAL values in Rockers, Mirrors, Rugs, Center Tables, Foot Stools, Roman Chairs, Turkish Leather Couches, etc., for useful Christmas presents, at Tribble & Pence's Furniture Store.

WILL CONTEST.—Notice of contest has been served on Mr. T. J. Hill, who won the nomination for sheriff by one vote, by Mr. George W. DeBord, his closest opponent for the office. A mistake in counting the votes is charged.

QUICK SETTLEMENT.—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. and C. E. Greer's house, which burned on the night of the 13th, and which was insured in the Glens Falls, of New York, represented by Agent R. B. Mahony, was paid in full on the 13th, just four days after the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Greer speak in high terms of Mr. Mahony and the company's prompt and just settlement. The adjuster for the Hamburg-Bremen Co., which carried insurance on Mr. J. H. Campbell's furniture, destroyed in the same fire, will be here to-morrow to settle with him.

THE Guitarr and Mandolin Recital by Miss Margaret Lewis and pupils, assisted by Prof. Henry Saxton, of Lexington, was all and more than had been anticipated. In fact it was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable entertainments ever given in Walton's Opera House. The program opened with a march, which was beautifully rendered by Misses Lewis and Nell Warren and Master Harry Eichenberger on mandolin and Prof. Saxton on the guitar, with Virginia Bourne as piano accompanist. Dr. Fallis' throat was out of condition and he could not sing the solo promised. Miss Berta Jean Penny's whistling solo was a feature of the evening and the applause given her was so great that she appeared a second time. Miss Lewis and Prof. Saxton's guitar duet fully merited the applause given it. The comedy, "Old Maid's Tea Party," participated in by Misses Burch, Phillips, Alcorn, McClary, Van-Ardale, and others was very amusingly presented. The costumes of the old maids were those of a hundred years ago and very ridiculous in this advanced, dressy age. Miss Lewis, pupils and Prof. Saxton favored the audience with a medley of operas, after which Miss Lillie Leavell, of Garrard, sang very beautifully "For All Eternity" and "Sing On," with violin obligato by Prof. Saxton. The applause given her splendid effort was almost deafening. On encore she sweetly sang "Annie Laurie." Prof. Saxton's guitar medley solo was so good that he had to make a third appearance. He is truly the greatest guitar player in the State! Vocal Virginia, with Miss Ida Moore as Sybil and Misses Margaret Warren, Claudia Eaton, Josephine Brady, Mary D. Kennedy, Mary Mobley, Mary Boudette, Kate and Nora Pence and Anna Reynolds as Virgins, was a pleasing part of the program. The young ladies acted their parts well and are to be congratulated. While the audience was not as large as the delightful entertainment deserved, we are glad to state that Miss Lewis lost no money. Our people owe her a vote of thanks for the pleasant evening she was instrumental in giving them.

FLEISHER'S Shetland Floss, 5 cents. John P. Jones.

ON Saturday next, 24th, Sam Robinson will give a cream pitcher souvenir to each purchaser.

BUGGIES AT COST FOR CASH!

Having decided to quit the buggy business, I will sell for the next 60 days at cost for cash a car load of Buggies, Surreys, Phaetons and Hackbords; also a lot of harnesses. They are all the latest style and best make. Part of the vehicles are rubber tired. Come to see me and get a bargain at once before they are all gone. CURTIS GOVER, Crab Orchard, Ky.

Nice Home For Sale!

Having decided to return to Somerset, I offer for sale privately my home on East Main Street in Stanford. The residence is six-room cottage, brand new, bath room and all conveniences. The lot contains about 1 1/2 acres of land and the home is a most delightful one. For further particulars call on or write me at Somerset, J. R. Heck or Wm. Beck at Stanford.

To the Insuring Public!

Having had a loss under Policy No. 11 137,505 of Home Insurance Co. of New York, I am prepared to recommend the same company to you and tell you for prompt and liberal settlements of losses there is none better and I dare say few as good. They do not deduct one-fourth from your policy, as some would have you believe, but willingly and cheerfully pay you all the indemnity that you pay them for. Beware of Mutual or Assessment Companies. For further particulars in regard to Mutual or Assessment Companies, address me: M. GREEN MURPHY, Kingsville, Ky.

HOTEL PROPERTY AND STABLE FOR SALE!

I desire to sell privately my hotel property and livery stable in Hustonville. Building can be used as hotel or private residence and is well arranged for two families. Stable has 20 stalls and is in good repair. Plenty water at barn and hotel. If house is not sold by Jan. 1 will rent it and can give possession on that date. Can give possession of barn if rented or sold separately on Nov. 25. House and barn newly covered. Hotel is in Grand School district. For further particulars call on or address: D. S. CARPENTER, Hustonville, Ky.

EVERYBODY IS NOT A TAILOR!

Having been in the Tailoring business all my life I feel confident in saying I represent one of the best tailoring firms in the country. With my experience in taking measures, and directing I give, your clothes are bound to be satisfactory as my many patrons in this line will bear me out. My prices are the same as inexperienced men who are in the business. I also have a nice line of fancy chevrot and other suitings I will cut and make if you desire at a moderate price. Thanking you for past favors, I am, yours, H. C. RUPLEY, the Tailor.

I will sell you a machine for cash with discount or on installment, on easy monthly payments. I will save you money in this, the greatest musical instrument ever invented. Call on or address: THOMAS C. BALL, Agt., Stanford, Lincoln Co. Ky., Lock Box 365.

FARM FOR SALE!

I desire to sell my farm of 245 acres on the Danville & Hustonville pike. The farm is in a high state of cultivation, fairly well improved, watered with three never failing springs and five ponds. In fact you have to see the place to understand the many conveniences. I want to sell in next 30 days. I also want to sell my stock consisting of 22 yearlings, aged 1 and 2 years old, 2 jacks, 2 jack colts, seven mares and mules, 1 race mare and colt, 1 standard bred mare by Gasquetta Wilkes, 2 horse mules, well broke, that have a little defect, but are good workers, will sell them for $100. If sold at once. Will sell farm and stock together or separately. Any one wanting a farm and outfit will do well to call at once and secure one of the most and best located farms in the county. I also have 10 bushels of good seed rice for sale. H. R. KIMB, Moreland, Ky.

It certainly pays to advertise, especially in a paper like the INTERIOR

JOURNAL. We know whereof we speak, for we've had some experience in that line. Our "ad" in Tuesday's issue of the loss of a "good-headed umbrella and a Saratoga bag" was quickly responded to by the Editor Mr. John Bagby, at Highland, and duly delivered to the loser. What would we do without the "cheapest and best?"

To Get Rid of Freckles.

In the January Delineator, in the department "Good Looks," Dr. Eleanor

Rogers gives the following recomendations for getting rid of freckles which will be welcomed by many who are troubled with these disagreeable blemishes:

"For removing freckles use colorless iodine. This can be made by adding one part of pure ammonia to three of tincture of iodine. After standing a day or two the iodine will become white. Apply the iodine to each freck-le with a camel's hair brush, or better,

by means of a swab made by wrapping

a wisp of cotton around a toothpick.

For a new one can be used each time.

Apply only enough to cover the freck-le. Use it night and morning until the skin is reddened, but not too much irritated. The pigment of the freckle is deposited in the upper layer of the skin and that must be destroyed in order to get rid of the pigment. Lemon juice is very useful to keep the skin white and to prevent the deposit of coloring matter, which makes the blemishes of moth patches and freckles."

A young Oxford student one day received an unexpected visit from his pretty sister, and was very indignant that she came without a chaperon.

"Look here," said the young man, "I will not have any of the fellows see you in my room, so if anyone knocks at the door you just get behind that screen." To a few minutes a knock was heard and the girl ran behind the screen as her brother went to open the door. An old gentleman stood on the threshold, who after apologizing for his intrusion, said: "I am just home from Australia and many years ago occupied these rooms. Would you allow me to look at them once again?" "Certainly sir, come in," said the student. "Ah," exclaimed the old man, "everything is just the same. Same old table, same old fireplace, same old screen." Then catching sight of the girl. "By Jove, same old dodge!" "Sir," exclaimed the student, "that is my sister." "Gad sir," was the rejoinder, "same old lie."
